A new Ditty, shewing the wonderfull Miracles of our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ, which he did while he remained vpon earth. To the tune of Triumph and Ioy.

When Iesus Christ was thins yeres as holy Scriptures plainly told, (old,
He then disputed bane and bold
among the learned Doctors;
Who wonderd greatly at his wit,
As in the Temple he did sit:
For no man could compare with it,
his wisdom was so heavenly.
Then praise th: Lord both high and low,
Which all these wondrous works doth show,
That we to heau'n at length may goe,
where he in glory reigneth.
At thirty yeres he then began to reach the Gospell vnto man,
And all Iudea wonderd then,
to heare his heavenly Doctrine:
Such wonders he did as made them wile,
Among the proud hard-hearted Iewes, Yet surer more they did refuse to take him for their Saviour.
Then praise, &c.
For first of all by power diuine,
He changed water into wine,
When at a marriage he did dine,
which made the people wonder:
Moreouer with seven loaves of bread,
Seven thousand men he fully fed,
Whereby his glory far was spread,
throughout the Land of Iury.
Then praise, &c.
And by his glorious power and might,
Vnto the blind he gaue their sight,
For which the Iewes bore him a spite,
who sought for to destroy him.
The man which was both deafe and dumb,
Which neuer heard nor spake with tongue,
By Christ was healed when he did come:
whose praise he then pronounced.
Then praise, &c.
The woman that was grieved sore,
With an issue of blood thins yeres e more,
Vnto her health he did restore,
in a minute of an houre:
The Captaine's man that sick did lie,
Our Saviour healed presently,
Although he neuer came him nye,
his troide alone did helpe him,
Then praise, &c.

Likewise he healed the Lepers ten,
whose Bodies were most filthy then,
Yet none but one did come agen,
him humble thanks to render:
And he that sick of the Palsie lay,
With shaking fornts full many a day,
The Lord to heale him did not stay,
but straight his will fulfilled.
Then praise, &c.

The halt and lame that could not goe,
But still remained in great woe,
Our Saviour Christ did pity shew,
and make them whole and free:
The man that was with Devils possit,
And neuer liued in peace and rest,
By Christ his troide at length was blit,
and they were cleane cast from him.
Then praise, &c.

The widowes sonne that dead did lie,
When Christ our Saviour came not nye,
He rayled to life immediately,
vnto her ioy and comfort.
Then Mary and Martha made great moane,
Because their Brother was dead and gone,
Our Lord put life in him alone,
and he from graue came running.
Then praise, &c.

And more his heavenly might to shew,
Upon the Sea himselfe did goe,
And neuer none could yet doe so,
but onely Christ our Saviour.
And when the windiers with great might Wd saue to take him in the night,
They were not able to stand in his sight,
till he the same permitted.
Then praise, &c.

But yet for all these wonders great,
The Iewes were in a raging heat,
Whom no perswasion could intreat,
but cruelly they did kill him:
And when he left his life to god,
The Stone was turned into blow,
The Earth and Temple shaking stood,
and graues full to the top did open.
Then praise, &c.

Then some of them that stand thereby,
With voices loud began to cry,
This was the Sonne of God truly, without all kind of doubting:
And as they said, it proued plaine:
For in thos dayes he rayled againe,
Although he suffered bitter paine, both heauen and hell he conquered.
Then praise, &c.

And after that ascended he,
To heauen in glorious Majesty,
With whom God send vs all to be,
for euermore reioycing.
Then praise, &c.
